

Accreditation Fees

ACADEMIC YEAR 2025/26

New accommodation providers

Before applying for accreditation, accommodation providers should first read the LSH Standards document, which can be found on the LSH website, and be confident of meeting all of the criteria. Property assessments are part of the accreditation process and advice will be given as to whether the property meets the LSH Standards.

At the first stage of your application, a property assessment fee of £30.00 is applicable and should be paid before the assessment and is non-refundable even if you choose not to proceed. Assessments for additional properties are charged at £10.00 each.

Accreditation fees for larger private developments (minimum size 20)

For the purposes of becoming LSH accredited, a private hall is defined as a single building where 20 or more students live, who will predominantly sign individual tenancy agreements.

Cost inc 20% VAT

£8.10 per bed space

Costs applicable are to accredit the full development, irrespective of the number of rooms advertised.

Example - accreditation costs for a 100 bed development with 50 vacancies will be £810.

As part of the accreditation package for private halls, we offer a single advertising slot on our office AV screen located on campus. Artwork should be provided in the following format: portrait - 1080 x 1920 pixels, as an image file (png or jpeg) or a PowerPoint file. Private halls can also provide leaflets/brochures to be displayed in the LSH office.

The costs outlined above are to accredited properties for a term of 12 months. Once a property has been accepted for accreditation it may be advertised on the LSH website portal. A property accredited for this period, will only be permitted to advertise its availability for tenancies commencing July 2025, for the academic year 2025/26. Properties will be advertised from December 2nd upon completion of the full accreditation process, including receipt of property safety certification, *licence from Liverpool City Council (LCC) and payment of applicable fees.

*If you are a new landlord applying for a Selective Licence, accreditation with LSH allows you to apply for a discount of £33.00 per property from LCC.
